

Professor Jyoti Palod honoured with Prestigious Fellow Award of National Academy of Veterinary and Animal Sciences

Professor Jyoti Palod of College of Veterinary and Animal Sciences has been confirmed with Fellow award of National Academy of Veterinary Sciences. This award was conferred in the inaugural ceremony of XXI Convocation-cum-Scientific Convention on enhancing the productivity of Dairy Animals jointly organised by GADVASU, Ludhiana and National Academy of Veterinary Sciences under the chairmanship of Hon'ble Minister of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry and Dairying Government of India Shri Purushottam Rupala at GADVASU, Ludhiana on July 1st 2023. The award was given by Hon'ble VC of GADVASU Ludhiana Dr. Inderjeet Singh and President NAVS Dr. DVR Prakash Rao in presence of Minister of Agriculture, Animal Husbandry, Fisheries, Dairy Development and Food Processing Punjab Govt Shri Gurmeet Singh Khuddian and President Veterinary Council of India Dr Umesh Sharma.

The fellow award is conferred on the distinguished Veterinarians for their excellence in different areas of Veterinary Profession. Various officers of University, Veterinary Professionals from different areas, staff members and students congratulated Dr Jyoti Palod for this great achievement. Dr Jyoti Palod working as Professor for last 13.5 years is also recipient of other Prestigious Awards of Fellow Animal Nutrition Association, Fellow ISAPM and IPSA Fellow. She has more than 28 years of Professional experience and has guided so far 3 Ph.D. and 11 P.G. students. She is Editorial Board Member of several Scientific Journals and Technical Magazines. She has more than 130 research papers published in International and National Journals of repute.

