Notice

On the recommendation of Admission Committee, the Vice-Chancellor has been pleased to allow the aspirants of admission to PG and Ph.D. programmes in this university to submit their PDC and Final Year Mark sheet at the time of document verification if they do not possess these documents at the time of choice filling, but allotment letter to such candidates would be given after verification of their documents. If a candidate fails to produce necessary documents at the time of document verification (already notified), the seat tentatively allotted to the candidate will stand automatically cancelled and will go to the next round of counselling. No claim thereafter in this regard will be entertained by the university.
